Select the correct opening for a reliable customer's reminder

A customer is 3 days past due for the very first time. They have a good payment history with you.

Which opening is right for this customer?

"This is a final warning before we take further steps."

"A gentle reminder that invoice #214 for NGN 450,000, due 5 June, is outstanding. You can pay via the transfer details below."

Say nothing for another month — they have always paid before.
